

Attend The Largest Supply Chain and Logistics Expo

MODEX 2014

In March 2014, manufacturing, distribution and supply chain professionals from more than 90 countries will meet in Atlanta for the industry's newest expo, MODEX 2014. They will come to see, touch and operate the solutions of over 800 of the top equipment and systems providers. The 180,000 square foot show floor will feature manufacturing, distribution and logistics solutions for the supply chain. An educational conference will offer industry expertise on the latest supply chain innovations.
