

JAN BLAHO

Director, Supply Chain Finance
Export-Import Bank of the U.S.

Prior to joining the Export-Import Bank, Jan Blaho, a native of the Slovak Republic, most recently worked for VUB Bank in Slovakia, where he was a Member of the Board and the Executive Director responsible for the Corporate Banking Division. While there, he directed a staff of over 200 employees and worked with Structured Trade Finance, Syndications, and Small and Medium Enterprises.

Jan also has experience with the largest Czech Bank in Prague, Czech Republic, where he managed the division responsible for Structured Finance and Corporate Banking. During his days in Prague he represented CSOB on the Board of Supervisors of CSOB's joint venture with MNR Rothschild. In addition, he worked for various international banks in the U.S. and Australia, including Westpac Banking Corporation and Lloyds Bank International.

During his spare time Jan is a visiting lecturer at Kellogg Business School; he has facilitated workshops at MSU, WCTC and Purdue University.

In October 2007 Jan received Ex-Im Bank's Chairman Award for his increased effectiveness in servicing the small business community.

As of June 2011, Jan took on the marketing and sales responsibility for Supply Chain Finance to large U.S. based exporters.
