

JOHN WORTMAN

Vice President of Market Development,
Officer/Owner
Detroit Radiant Products Co. (DRP)

John Wortman is the Vice President of Market Development and Officer/Owner at Detroit Radiant Products Co. (DRP), a Warren, Michigan specialty heating appliance manufacturer. He was promoted to this position in July of 2009 to develop and manage domestic and international agricultural, industrial and commercial HVAC markets.

He was appointed as the Director of Engineering role at DRP from 2005 thru 2009 and was responsible for product development, certification, and production quality control. The experiences gained during John's business (and personal) travels as the Director of Engineering took him to twenty-five different countries around the world honing skills as a technical sales manager.

In 2001, John took the lead role in developing heating methodologies for commercial broiler (poultry) operations for Detroit Radiant. In 2009 Agricultural sales accounted for 20% of DRP's total sales.

After Graduating from Western Michigan University with a BA in Finance in 1999 John joined Detroit Radiant Products as a technician in the engineering department.

Raised in Grosse Pointe Michigan, John and his wife Sidney remain loyal Detroit East Siders living in St. Clair Shores raising their three young sons. Spending time with family and friends is very important for John and Sidney, furthermore their hobbies include athletics, boating, and traveling.
