

TERRENCE D. KALLEY

Managing Director
Global Logistics Strategies

Mr. Kalley is Managing Director of Global Logistics Strategies, a firm providing investment, M&A, strategic consulting and performance enhancement activities to the ocean transportation intermediary industry.

Mr. Kalley was co-founder and President of Bright Solutions, a supplier to the global automotive service industry, which he has run for 18 years before selling his company. In this capacity, he oversaw the expansion from a start-up to a global enterprise selling in dozens of markets globally. With over twenty five years of hands-on experience in business, his expertise includes financial, operational, R&D, logistics, marketing and legal aspects of running corporations. International experience includes visiting almost fifty countries, establishing distribution and procurement globally and living and working in the USA, Canada and South Africa. Mr. Kalley has a passion for innovation and is mentioned as an inventor or co-inventor on 16 U.S. patents.

Terry Kalley is Chairman of the Eastern Michigan District Export Council, a group consisting of experts from business, government and academia that supports the U.S. Department of Commerce to promote U.S. exports. He has chaired this DEC and previously the Michigan DEC for over ten years. In that time the EMDEC has hosted numerous conferences on various issues relating to international trade featuring top executives from many world-class companies, high ranking government officials both U.S. and foreign as well as experts from academia and think tanks.

He is the founder of Freedom of Access to Medicines (FAMEDS), a non-profit organization advocating for the earliest possible availability of medical options for critically ill patients. In that capacity he and FAMEDS have been widely quoted by leading national media outlets such as the Wall St. Journal, New York Times, Reuters, AP, Fox News, etc.

Mr. Kalley earned a MBA in Banking and Finance from Case Western Reserve University and a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of South Africa with a concentration in law and economics.