

Toni Corsini

Bio - 2012

Toni is the Senior Trade Finance Specialist & New York/New Jersey Regional Manager representing the SBA Office of International Trade at the US Export Assistance Center in downtown New York City.

Before becoming a Federal Government employee, Toni was the Vice President and Manager of Trade Services Marketing & Communication for North America at a large global financial institution.

Toni is well known in the business & banking communities, having spent many years in trade finance as a VP for commercial banks in both New York and New Jersey and as an export manager in the manufacturing sector.

She has conducted international trade finance classes and courses for many years for high-profile corporations and educational institutions in New York and New Jersey.

She holds Degrees in Business Management and in Banking.