

Isabella Cascarano
Commercial Officer, US&FCS, Department of Commerce

Isabella Cascarano is a member of the U.S. and Foreign Commercial Service, and has been with the U.S. Department of Commerce since 1993. She is the newly assigned Senior Commercial Officer to the U.S. Embassy Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic as of August 8, 2012. Her previous assignments include Senior Commercial Officer, Kuwait City, Kuwait; Deputy Senior Commercial Officer, Cairo, Egypt; Principal Commercial Officer, Munich, Germany; Principal Commercial Officer, Guadalajara, Mexico; and International Trade Specialist/Director at the Denver U.S. Export Assistance Center.

Before becoming a Foreign Commercial Service Officer, Ms. Cascarano worked at US&FCS Office of Domestic Operations as Project Manager of the U.S. Rural Export Initiative, and as the Italy and Benelux Desk Officer in the International Trade Administration's Market Access and Compliance division.

Ms. Cascarano has a Masters Degree in Economics and Management from Bocconi University in Milan, Italy and a Bachelors Degree in International Economics from George Washington University in Washington, D.C. She speaks German and Spanish, and studied Arabic at FSI. She is married to USAID officer Benjamin Garrett and they have a son.