

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS: WHERE WILL YOUR NEXT GROUP OF STUDENTS COME FROM?

Join the U.S. Commercial Service on an education mission to the burgeoning markets of:

- El Salvador
- Honduras
- Nicaragua (Optional stop)

Make your school known as a coveted destination for overseas students. Since 2006, the number of students attending higher-education institutions in the United States from these 3 countries has increased 21.5%. This mission will directly connect you with students and schools and help you establish valuable relationships in the Central American cities of San Salvador, Santa Ana, Tegucigalpa and Managua.

Who should join this mission?

- Community Colleges
- Intensive ESL Programs
- Summer Programs
- Undergraduate and Graduate Degree Programs

Mission participants will receive:

- Pre-travel briefings
- On-site embassy/consulate briefings
- One-on-one meetings
- Student Fairs with visits to local high schools
- Airport transfers

Details/Registration:

<http://export.gov/industry/education/>

Event Dates

March 16-19, 2015

Registration Deadline

January 15, 2015

Cost*

Non-Profit Institution:	$2,208
For-Profit University:	$2,612

Additional Nicaragua Fee*

Non-Profit Institution:	$1,123
For-Profit University:	$1,350

Additional Representative Fee*: $500

Contacts

Gabriela Zelaya, Silicon Valley
USEAC
(408) 535-2757, ext. 107
Gabriela.zelaya@trade.gov

Sara Moreno, Lexington USEAC
(859) 225-7001
sara.moreno@trade.gov

*Lodging, some meals, incidentals, and all travel (except for airport transport in-country) not included

